Th s post s very a armist but it asks some pert nent question about the recount

28-125 HOURS. Oh, a few people will pitch in for real, so I'll say 27 hours.

EASY MATH. JILL STEIN WILL GET THE 4.5 MILLION SHE NEEDS BETWEEN 4 AND SIX PM TONIGHT. DEPENDING UPON HOW MUCH REAL PEOPLE PITCH IN. Actual math progression based on the steady rate lands squarely on 6:10 PM tonight, but I am guessing a few real people will pay in.

Don't be fooled by the slick language on the donation page, if those donations did not virtually stop at night they are not coming from the American people.

Yes folks, we are watching the election steal as it happens. They could not do it by threatening electors, so now we have this. And it is all based on false claims, because Michigan CANNOT BE HACKED. Michigan has a CERTIFIED VOTE. There is NO WAY THIS IS LEGIT. And that means ONE THING: there are liars doing it, powerful liars who know in advance they are going to find what they are looking for.

Anonymous sent.

It's over, folks.

They are absolutely taking this from Trump. If you were able to see these stories they already have prepared for us to start running next week, your jaw would hit the ground.

They are going to "find" that the results were indeed "hacked". They have everything set in place, and have been ready to play this out for over a week.

All 3 states (Michigan, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania) are going to be reversed and awarded to Hillary Clinton. Speculate on who is pulling the strings, but this is going to happen.

Start preparing for the news to come. NOW.

My response: Michigan had all paper ballots and cannot be hacked. But that won't stop liars of the caliber we are up against. Michigan has a different vote counting process than other states. First, Michigan does a quick count. Then, automatically, they do a certified count. That count was certified today. It is an un-hackable process. If Hillary takes Michigan when Michigan can't be hacked, and the vote is certified, it will prove fraud of the highest order.

FINAL ANSWER: BULLYING ELECTORS WITH DEATH THREATS DID NOT WORK, SO NOW THEY ARE GOING TO FORCE A RECOUNT ONLY IN STATES TRUMP WON. THERE IS NOTHING WE CAN DO ABOUT THIS. WE NEED EVERYONE POSSIBLE TO GET OFF WORK AND BE THERE TO WITNESS THE RECOUNT. WHAT ELSE CAN I SAY?

Hillary Clinton's Health Is Superb (Aside From Seizures, Lesions, Adrenaline Pens)

Hillary Clinton. Stronger Together. How strong? Well, the great woman s health is excellent, superb even. Her heart and mind are hundred thousand times stronger than the strongest beams of steel that built our great American cities more than a century ago. Her soul a shining exemplar of selflessness, service, and humility. Her resolve sound... wait, are we talking about the same person here?!

The same Hillary Clinton who recently became the most unintentional star of YouTube, with a truly endless upload stream of videos purporting to show Hillary Clinton wildly seizing up when several reporters begin questioning her at once? Yes, the same Hillary Clinton who became the star of this Paul Joseph Watson video attracting 3,654,[illegible] views since it was uploaded on August 4th

Trump blames terrorists for killings in Turkey, Berlin

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Without backing up his claim, President-elect Donald Trump is blaming Islamic terrorism for deadly violence in Turkey and Germany and vowing anew to eradicate their regional and global networks.

Authorities in both countries were still investigating Monday when Trump issued a pair of statements condemning the incidents. The White House had already described the episode in central Berlin, in which a truck rammed into shoppers at a Christmas market, as an apparent terrorist attack.

Money was not only a theoretician but a practitioner, head of the Johns Hopkins Gender Identity Clinic. It was his belief in the unlimited malleability of human sexuality that led him, in his most famous case, to advise the parents of a baby whose penis was nearly cut off during a botched circumcision that he should henceforth be brought up as a girl After all, what was a girl but a boy in skirts? And what was a boy but a girl given toy guns to play with? The requisite operations once performed on the unfortunate child, to complete what the botched circumcision had nearly accomplished, all would be well.

The boy brought up as a girl continued to show the boyish qualities familiar to any mother. He or she fought like a trooper, was more interested in cars and trains than in dolls, was adventurous and boisterous, and, given a jump rope as a gift, used it only to tie up his or her twin brother. As he or she grew older, he or she expressed no sexual interest whatever in boys. Professor Money continued to describe the case as an unqualified success, and for a long time the scientific and journalistic worlds were fooled. Yes, it was possible to turn little boys into little girls by fiat. No, sexual identity was not fixed by biology but was socially constructed, a product of convention and custom. Money's view was accepted uncritically as true and therefore it became orthodox (I remember being taught it as a medical student).

Business conference draws bigwigs

By Tim Epperson
San Joaquin News Service

Bakersfield — Three former presidents picknicked with 10,000 Californians on Saturday, trading visions of America's future with some of the nation's top business leaders and comedians.

All gathered in a huge tent which covered the soccer field at California State University Bakersfield for the 9th annual Bakersfield Business and Finance Conference.

Former President George Bush and first lady Barbara Bush lifted a crowd of at least 10,000 to its feet, in addition to a myriad of celebrities such as businessmen T Boone Pickens, Donald Trump, Lee Iacocca, New York Gov. Mario Cuomo and former U.S. Housing and Urban Development Secretary Jack Kemp.

The North American Free Trade agreement proved to be a hot topic. Trump, who apparently spoke ardently against the plan, said it would only benefit Mexico.

Speakers such as Gerald Ford, Bush and Kemp agreed with former Chrysler chief Iacocca that the agreement would improve lifestyles in Mexico, greatly reducing illegal immigration into the United States.

"Our future lies south of the border," Bush said. "NAFTA is bigger than jobs, it's bigger than trade, it's vital to U.S. growth."

A handful of NAFTA opponents made their opinions known by pacing up and down Stockdale Highway, which runs in front of the CSUB campus, with placecards so let the people solve their problems.

Carter then turned his comments to domestic affairs and the conference attendees.

"The greatest discrimination on earth is not racial nor religious," he told the crowd. "It's discrimination by the rich against the poor it's not deliberate, it's created by unawareness."

Carter encouraged all in attendance to help overcome this discrimination.

Ford maneuvered through several jokes about his golfing abilities, then turned his comments to the fall of communism.

The United States should offer help to Moscow, but "there should be no bank checks for ex-Communist bosses," he said.

U.S. troops should only be involved in international conflicts if American national security, social structure or military are at stake, he said.

Troops do not belong in Somalia or Haiti, where the problems are Bernie Sanders realizes that identity po tics is killing the left.

> But, but, here is my point, and this is where there is going to be division within the Democratic Party. It is not good enough for someone to say, "I'm a woman! Vote for me!" No, that's not good enough. What we need is a woman who has the guts to stand up to Wall Street, to the insurance companies, to the drug companies, to the fossil fuel industry. In other words, one of the struggles that you're going to be seeing in the Democratic Party is whether we go beyond identity politics. I think it's a step forward in America if you have an African-American head or CEO of some major corporation.
> But you know what? If that guy is going to be shipping jobs out of this country and exploiting his workers, it doesn't mean a whole hell of a lot if he's black or white or Latino. And some people may not agree with me, but that is the fight we're going to have right now in the Democratic Party. The working class of this country is being decimated. That's why Donald Trump won.

This post is very a armist but it asks some pertinent question about the recount

28.125 HOURS. Oh, a few people will pitch in for real, so I'll say 27 hours.

EASY MATH. JILL STEIN WILL GET THE 4.5 MILLION SHE NEEDS BETWEEN 4 AND SIX PM TONIGHT. DEPENDING UPON HOW MUCH REAL PEOPLE PITCH IN. Actual math progression based on the steady rate lands squarely on 6:10 PM tonight, but I am guessing a few real people will pay in.

Don't be fooled by the slick language on the donation page, if those donations did not virtually stop at night they are not coming from the American people.

Yes folks, we are watching the election steal as it happens. They could not do it by threatening electors, so now we have this. And it is all based on false claims, because Michigan CANNOT BE HACKED. Michigan has a CERTIFIED VOTE. There is NO WAY THIS IS LEGIT. And that means ONE THING: there are liars doing it, powerful liars who know in advance they are going to find what they are looking for.

Anonymous sent.

It's over, folks.

They are absolutely taking this from Trump. If you were able to see these stories they already have prepared for us to start running next week, your jaw would hit the ground.

They are going to "find" that the results were indeed "hacked". They have everything set in place, and have been ready to play this out for over a week.

All 3 states (Michigan, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania) are going to be reversed and awarded to Hillary Clinton. Speculate on who is pulling the strings, but this is going to happen.

Start preparing for the news to come. NOW.

My response: Michigan had all paper ballots and cannot be hacked. But that won't stop liars of the caliber we are up against. Michigan has a different vote counting process than other states. First, Michigan does a quick count. Then, automatically, they do a certified count. That count was certified today. It is an un-hackable process. If Hillary takes Michigan when Michigan can't be hacked, and the vote is certified, it will prove fraud of the highest order.

FINAL ANSWER: BULLYING ELECTORS WITH DEATH THREATS DID NOT WORK, SO NOW THEY ARE GOING TO FORCE A RECOUNT ONLY IN STATES TRUMP WON. THERE IS NOTHING WE CAN DO ABOUT THIS. WE NEED EVERYONE POSSIBLE TO GET OFF WORK AND BE THERE TO WITNESS THE RECOUNT. WHAT ELSE CAN I SAY?

Ohio State Univers ty terrorist whined about Islamophobia

HUMANS OF OHIO STATE

"I just transferred from Columbus State. We had prayer rooms. We actual rooms where we could go to pray because we Muslims have to pray five times a day. There's Fajr, which is early in the morning, at dawn. Then Zuhr during the daytime, then Asr in the evening, like right about now. And then Maghrib, which is like right at sunset and then Isha at night. I wanted to pray Asr. I mean, I'm new here. This is my first day. This place is huge, and I don't even know where to pray. I wanted to pray in the open, but I was kind of scared with everything going on in the media. I'm a Muslim, it's not what the media portrays me to be. If people look at me, a Muslim praying, don't know what they're going to think, what's going to happen. But, I don't blame them. It's the media that put that picture in their heads so they're just going to have it and it, it's going to make them feel uncomfortable. I was kind of scared right now. But just did it. relied on God. I went over to the corner and just prayed."

The Washington Post is giving a platform to a group that wants people arrested for criticizing Hillary

Let that sink in

> While blacklisting left wing and libertarian journalists, PropOrNot also denies being McCarthyite. Yet it simultaneously calls for the U.S. government to use the FBI and DOJ to carry out "formal investigations" of these accused websites. "because the kind of folks who make propaganda for brutal authoritarian oligarchies are often involved in a wide range of bad business." The shadowy group even goes so far as to claim that people involved in the blacklisted websites may "have violated the Espionage Act, the Foreign Agent Registration Act, and other related laws."

Subject: Trump on Hillary— have clergy call on Trump to apologize

Suggest we find some clergy to call on Teump to apologize to HRC Getting women to do it is obvious but getting some clergy would be very powerful
I can t even imagine what he suggesting HRC was doing in the ladies room, but it was a gift.

If there was ever any doubt, it's now been officially confirmed in triplicate; Buzzfeed is cancer

At a moment when journalists are up in arms about "fake news," what BuzzFeed has done here is take fake news to a new level. Its editor Ben Smith acknowledges "there's serious reason to doubt the allegations" in other words, there is a most certainly fake news dossier these memos, and it might all be fake, or some parts of it might be true but buried so deeply under falsity that it would be impossible to separate it out.

"Publishing this dossier reflects how we see the job of reporters in 2017" Smith writes. This is an amazing thing to say because if you think it through it means publishing open libels and slanders is the job of reporters in 2017.

"Fake news will become more sophisticated and fake, ambiguous and spun-up stories will spread widely," warned an important American editor at the end of December 2016. His name: Ben Smith. His publication: BuzzFeed.

Wisconsin recount Trump ahead by a FURTHER 3 votes

This is what you spent $3 5 million on, suckers.

Day 2 totals

Clinton gained 89 votes but lost 86 for a net gain of 3 votes
Trump gained 98 votes but lost 92 for a net gain of 6 votes.

OVERALL
Clinton gained 3 votes
Trump gained 6 votes
Net Trump gain of 3 votes on Day 2

Trump won Wisconsin by more than 22,000 votes

That means that Trump inched ahead by a grand total of 3 votes in a recount expected to cost more than $3 5 million Green Party nominee Stein raised more than $6 million to fund recounts in Wisconsin Michigan and Pennsylvania The latter two recounts are now bogged

Remember when the mainstream media (fake news) c aimed Trump was lying for saying Muslims n New Jersey celebrated 9/11?

- On September 16, 2001, WCBS-TV's Pablo Guzmán reported that the FBI had raided a building in Jersey City "swarming with suspects" who had been seen celebrating after seeing the planes slam into the World Trade Center.[96]
- A September 22, 2001, San Francisco Chronicle article reported that police in Jersey City had "detained several men seen 'celebrating' the attack as the smoke first rose across the river."[97]
- An MTV video called "Fight for Your Rights: Aftermath of Terror" that aired on November 17, 2001, featured a high school senior Emily Acevedo telling MTV that she had seen Muslims celebrating the 9/11 attacks outside the Paterson, New Jersey, town hall. On camera, she said she saw "a lot of people chanting and raving," "holding rocks and sticks," and "saying, 'Burn America.'"[98]
- The day after 9/11, four people called into The Howard Stern Show with eyewitness accounts of Muslims celebrating in Paterson. (Yes, it was Howard Stern, but this was the day after the attack. It was a somber broadcast.)[99]
- A September 14, 2001, New York Post op-ed included this line: "Here in New York, it was easy to get angry listening to Egyptians, Palestinians and the Arabs of nearby Paterson, N.J., celebrate as they received word of the murderous attacks in New York and Washington."[100]
- Even The New York Times had a human interest story on September 30, 2001, reporting "rumors" of "Muslim celebrations in the wake of the trade center attacks."[101] Apparently no one at the Times found that worthy of investigation. Would that the Times had a news-gathering arm!
- And then there was the article by the disabled

More proof that Team Hillary is very concerned about Bill Clinton's sexual predator past

We need to set aside some time – it can be tomorrow, it can be Thursday – to do Q and A on the political questions, which now seem to be really owning the coverage

1. Are you slipping in the polls? Why?

2 Do new revelations about your emails bring these issues back?

3. Can voters trust you?

4. WJC Issues

a. Is his conduct relevant to your campaign?

b. You said every woman should be believed. Why not the women who accused him?

c Will you apologize to the women who were wrongly smeared by your husband and his allies?

d. How is what Bill Clinton did different from what Bill Cosby did?

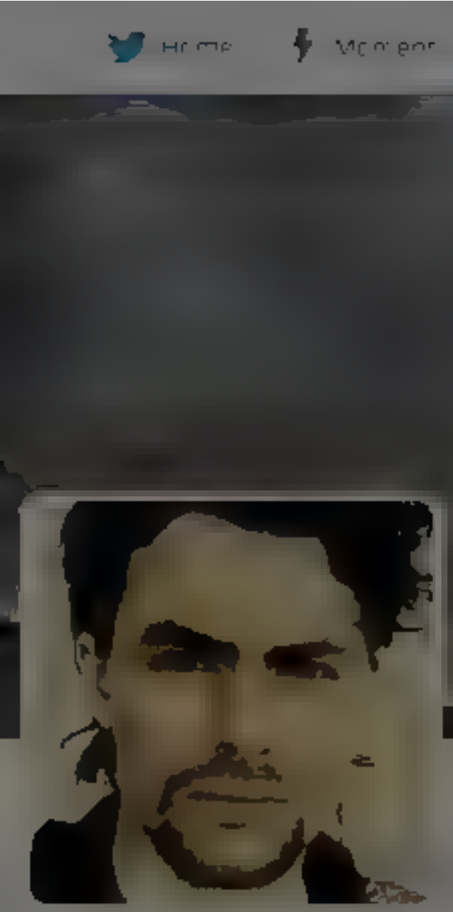
Clinton press secretary worried about WikiLeaks emails, but since the mainstream media refuses to cover them, he shouldn't be concerned.

Brian Fallon
If you are going to write about materials issued by @wikileaks you should at least state they are product of illegal hack by a foreign govt



Brian Fallon
Russia actively trying to boost Trump is way more important than how our campaign s tweets are crafted but is getting fraction of coverage

Brian Fallon
Media needs to stop treating Wikileaks like it is same as FOIA Assange is colluding with Russian governmen, to help Trump

Brian Fallon
Wouldn't it be good reading to see internal discussions abt Trump's taxes? Yes but Wikileaks isnt targeting Trump That tells you something.

Brian Fallon
Obviously cannot wish away reporter curiosity n campaign's inner workings but for God sakes Roger Stone admitted meeting with Assange

Brian Fallon
How about probing possibility of Trump associates directly coordinating with Russia and Wikileaks? That s the thing that shd cause chills

Robert De Niro supreme hypocrite

But did you really expect anyth ng e se from a C nton lackey?

Robert De Niro sympathizes with Bill Clinton

BERLIN – Robert De Niro, whose latest film tells the story of a U.S. president who orchestrates a war to divert attention from a sex scandal, had some words of sympathy Sunday for President Clinton.

De Niro said Clinton, who is under investigation for allegedly having an affair with a former White House intern and asking her to lie about it, was getting unfair treatment from a media titillated by salacious stories.

"He didn't do anything that is so terrible," De Niro said. "We have more important things to worry about."

On any real-life parallels in the political satire "Wag the Dog," which he also produced, De Niro said they were just a coincidence.

Reading Eagle, 23 February 1998.

NBC paid Chelsea $600k a year to be a fake journalist so they could curry favor with the C ntons day to-day operation. According to multiple sources, Chelsea's overbearing, I know better attitude rubbed people the wrong way, and many of the senior staff headed for the door.

As it happened, Chelsea was already doing well financially, thank you. She was a member of the board of IAC/InterActiveCorp, the digital media company run by Barry Diller, a long-time Clinton supporter. IAC/InterActiveCorp paid Chelsea $50,000 a year and granted her $250,000 in restricted stock. In addition, Chelsea pulled down a $600,000 a-year salary as a "special correspondent" for NBC News, doing feel-good segments for Nightly News and Rock Center with Brian Williams.

When Politico revealed Chelsea's NBC salary, the media went into overdrive poking fun at the arrangement. Business Insider calculated that Chelsea made $26,724 for every minute she was on-air. And the Los Angeles Times sniffed: "[Chelsea's assignment] raises the obvious question of NBC's goal in giving [her] a high profile job and apparently paying her a top-echelon salary. The answer is equally obvious: Plainly, it was done to curry fav

Hillary by denigrating Obama's victory in South Carolina by comparing it to Jesse Jackson's wins there in the 1980s.

But there were other examples of Bill's political infidelity. When Hillary said at a press conference that some of the thirty thousand "personal" e-mails she deleted were between her and her husband, Bill let it be known through his spokesman that he had sent a grand total of two e-mails during his entire life. More recently, when Karl Rove suggested that Hillary suffered a serious health episode after fainting and suffering a concussion in 2012, Bill made matters worse by revealing that it took Hillary "six months of very serious work to get over" her injury. Hillary's health, Bill admitted, would be a "serious issue" in the 2016 campaign.

Sometimes, Hillary told friends, she suspected that Bill really didn't want her to become president.

That wasn't true.

B ll s worst fear is that S ck Hillary is going to physically st mble or fall at a critical moment in her campaign general if Hillary gets into the White House."

Bill's worst fear was that Hillary would stumble physically or fall at a critical moment in the campaign and reveal that she wasn't up to handling the job of commander in chief. One night in their bedroom at Chappaqua, he gently approached the question of how the presidential campaign was affecting her health.

"Bill told me that he tiptoed into the dangerous territory of suggesting that maybe Hillary should rethink whether she had the physical stamina to take on the tortures of a presidential campaign," said one of Bill's closest friends. "Hillary blew up and said, 'You're acting like a fucking quitter and a loser. You're projecting your own health problems onto me. I'm not dying.'

"Bill raised both hands in surrender and said, 'Don't shoot,'" the friend continued. "Hillary had a hairbrush in her hand, and Bill was afraid she was going to throw it at him. But she restrained herself with great effort.

A cardiologist told Sick H llary to travel with a physician at a l times

Bill was so concerned that he asked a well known cardiologist to review Hillary's medical records. After looking over her cardiograms and X-rays and other records, the cardiologist recommended that Hillary travel w th a full time physician who would keep her under constant observation.

"Most politicians are reluctant to be monitored by a doctor because they fear that if the results are leaked to the press, the information might harm their chances of election," the cardiologist said in an interview for this book. "But doctors are discreet. And in Hillary's case, it is very important that she be monitored on a daily basis. Her symptoms—the fainting—are very worrisome, especially for someone of her age. I have a lot of experience with political candidates and have seen the toll that the stress of a campaign can take. It's stressful for young candidates, and for older ones like Hillary, it's beyond belief."

Labe ng dissent as "fake news" & punishing its authors is a tool used by dictators all over the wor d.

In the past two years, Egypt has sentenced six Al Jazeera journalists to death or long prison terms for, among other things, allegedly spreading false news. In 2014, Gambia, until the recent ouster of Yahya Jammeh, one of Africa's worst dictators, introduced a punishment of up to 15 years' imprisonment and hefty fines for those who spread "false news," citing a need for stability and the prevention of "unpatriotic behavior" and "treacherous" campaigns. Russia, ironically the source of so much of the disinformation menacing liberal democracies, uses broad and vaguely worded extremism laws to prohibit news that the Kremlin views as propaganda, including prison sentences for social-media users who insist that Crimea is part of Ukraine.

Th s Lena Dunham meltdown is the funniest th ng .ve read all week

The three hours I spent at the Javits Center Tuesday night, surrounded by campaign staffers and fellow surrogates for Hillary Clinton, are blurred and spotty. At a certain point it became clear something had gone horribly wrong. Celebrants' faces turned. The modeling had been incorrect. Watching the numbers in Florida, I touched my face and realized I was crying. "Can we please go home?" I said to my boyfriend. I could tell he was having trouble breathing, and I could feel my chin breaking into hives. Another woman showed me her matching hive, hidden by fresh concealer.

I hugged the women I had spent eighteen months with, laughing and plotting and spreading our love for Hillary Clinton and her message. My party dress felt tight and itchy.

By the time we'd made it over the bridge, a friend called. "It's over," she said. "I love you." I was frozen. We stopped at the diner. No one was speaking as they ate, no one in the whole place.

At home I got in the shower and began to cry even harder. My boyfriend, who had already wept, watched me as I mumbled incoherently, clutching myself. "It wasn't supposed to go this way. It was supposed to be her job. She worked her whole life for the job. It's her job."

People are angrier with Trump for imposing a visa ban on Yemen than they ever were with Obama for bombing and killing Yemenis and backing a barbaric Saudi war that pushed parts of Yemen to the brink of famine They're angrier with Trump for imposing a temporary ban on Syrian refugees coming to America than they ever were with the Obama policies that helped rip Syria apart and saturate it with weaponry and which created those refugees in the first place. They're angrier with Trump for his Mexico wall than they ever were with Obama for kicking out more Mexicans than any president in history or with Hillary for voting for the building of a 700-mile security barrier between America and Mexico -- you know, a wall. It's bizarre. Obama is a saint even though he caused mayhem, and Trump is a fascist basically for saying: "Oh shit, there's mayhem." If you adore Obama then I'm sorry but you have forfeited your right to be taken seriously on Trump.

Trump s being ridiculed by sanctimon ous lefties for his non specificity in mentioning an "incident" in Sweden during his ral y yesterday

The truth is that there are so many " ncidents" n Swed sh c.ties every day thanks to mass uncontro led imm grat on that t s now commonplace to hear explos ons when you re wa k ng down a street in Malmo

A veteran Swedish cop recently blew the whist e on how virtually a l these "incidents" - sexual assaults, grenade attacks, murder were being carried out by Muslim migrants He was h t with hate crime charges for h s honesty

Even some Somal mm grants are now returning home because some areas of Sweden are worse than their homeland

Many migrant suburbs are now no-go areas for po ice fire fighters and ambulance workers because they are routinely attacked for trying to do their job

Police are being ordered to implement Code 291 rules to hide "al nformation about the mmigration-re ated crime

So while you re augh ng at Trump for h s non-specif city about an "incident" n Sweden - bear in mind that these "incidents" are now so commonplace as to be part of daily ife for Swedes living n major c ties

Former leftist: Today's left comprises the most 'fanatically horrible people .'ve ever encountered in my 58 years on earth.

Michael Rectenwald
Just now

I was on the receiving end of a Twitter shit storm from hell last night, after O'Reilly tweeted my handle and interview, and after I suggested that if Milo Yiannopoulos was a liberal, the same people hanging him symbolically now would be defending him zealously.

The result: Twitter Hell on earth.

I don t want to reproduce the putrid and vile character of this attack, but I will say this: today s "Left" is rife with the most obscene, abusive, nasty, spiritually ugly and utterly unethical, hypocritical and fanatically horrible people I've ever encountered in my 58 years on earth.

When I was a left liberal activist and founder of Citizens for Legitimate Government after the first GWB Bush "election," I routinely received hate email from right-wingers. They were routinely mean-spirited.

But now that I am a critic of the Left, nothing from the past comes close to the kind of personal invective, baseless insults, vilely degrading language and imagery that I was barraged with from these Leftists -- and all because I critiqued an IDEOLOGY and its mechanisms, and critiqued the hypocrisy of today's illiberal leftists.

The Left has utterly and completely lost its way and I no longer want anything to do with it. I include most milieus of Marxism as well, as these have resorted to the same tactics in conjunction with the others.

Good bye to all that. Good bye.

Fun facts about Sweden.

MORE FUN FACTS ABOUT SWEDEN

– Sweden is a country in which some politicians have called for giving free housing, jobs and welfare to returning ISIS Jihadists – all at taxpayer expense.

– Sweden is a country that is suffering a major housing shortage yet simultaneously has politicians telling its citizens that they may need to give up their garages in order to house third world immigrants.

– Sweden is a country where victims of Muslim gang rapes are unsure about whether to report the crime to police because they fear doing so may offend the perpetrator.

– Sweden is also a country that hires ISIS sympathizers to run its immigration boards. The country's taxpayer funded "expert" on Islamophobia, Michael Nikolai Skråmo, also went on to join ISIS.

– As we reported earlier this year, a Swedish Bishop in Stockholm proposed removing crosses from a Christian church and replacing them with Islamic symbols in order to cater for Muslims.

– Sweden is a country in which prominent Swedish politicians are charged with hate crimes for drawing attention to any of these issues.

Not brakes or steering

Wrong ! Anti lock brakes can be controlled individually Want to turn left, apply brakes to front left

Camchain

hacking the brakes would only lock them out, not lock them up
And there were no skid marks, right?

btw if high revs applied to a straight v6/8 unexpectedly the torque will turn a vehicle sharply to the left.

PewDiePie red pilled my son self.conspiracy

I have an 11 year old son. This morning I was watching the local news and he came downstairs asking me why I am watching the news. He told me that I shouldn't trust the main stream media (and he used that exact term). He told me that he doesn't trust them after the PewDiePie situation and that I shouldn't either. He said to imagine what other things they lie about.

The only thing I have ever said to him on this topic is to always make sure to do his own research on matters.

*A lot of assumptions being made about me being his father. Just wanted to note that I am his mother.

Th s is why they hate PewD ePie

reddit

PewDiePie red pilled my son self.conspiracy

I have an 11 year old son. This morning I was watching the local news and he came downstairs asking me why I am watching the news. He told me that I shouldn't trust the main stream media (and he used that exact term). He told me that he doesn't trust them after the PewDiePie situation and that I shouldn't either. He said to imagine what other things they lie about.

The only thing I have ever said to him on this topic is to always make sure to do his own research on matters.

*A lot of assumptions being made about me being his father. Just wanted to note that I am his mother.

He has said he is against President Trump and white people

Thompson has tweeted his opposition to President Donald Trump several times. He has also ranted about white people on his Twitter account, calling them "trash." The ADL said Thompson last year announced plans to run for mayor of St. Louis, his hometown, to "fight back against Trumpian fascism." The civil rights group, which has been monitoring Thompson, said the suspect "became more hostile to whites in general" after he was axed from The Intercept. Thompson used to live in New York City where he and his roommate apparently hosted a TV show and discussed issues like bigotry, according to the ADL

Osama Krayem, born in Malmo, Sweden in 1992, went to Syria to fight for ISIS in 2014 and returned to Europe posing as a refugee on a false passport. He went on to meet with Salah Abdeslam, one of the Paris massacre culprits, to help coordinate the attack.

Krayem was also involved in planning for the Brussels bombing and had intended to be the second metro bomber, but backed out at the last minute.

Ironically, Krayem had once participated in a documentary called Without Borders which was about "how to succeed with Integration" of migrants into Swedish society."

Belkaid was killed by Belgian police during the raid that led to the capture of Abdeslam, whom he was associated with. Two other suspects who escaped the raid, Ibrahim and Khalid El Bakraoui, went on to carry out the Brussels bombings a week later

Rache Maddow is sti rambling, presumably unaware that the details of Trump's tax return are already on the nternet

Donald Trump earned more than $150 million in the year 2005—and paid just a small percentage of that in regular federal income taxes. Daily Beast contributor David Cay Johnston has obtained what appear to be the first two pages of Trump's 2005 federal income tax return, and published an analysis of those pages on his website, DCReport.org. The Daily Beast could not independently verify these documents.

The documents show Trump and his wife Melania paying $5.3 million in regular federal income tax—a rate of less than 4%. However, the Trumps paid an additional $31 million in the so-called "alternative minimum tax," or AMT. Trump has previously called for the elimination of this tax.

"Before being elected President, Mr. Trump was one of the most successful businessmen in the world with a responsibility to his company, his family and his employees to pay no more tax than legally required," the White House said in a statement. "That being said, Mr. Trump paid $38 million dollars even after taking into account large scale depreciation for construction, on an income of more than $150 million dollars, as well as paying tens of millions of dollars in other taxes such as sales and excise taxes and employment taxes and this illegally published return proves just that."

You control Silicon Valley

You control Hollywood & the music industry

You control the art world

You control popular culture

You witch hunt, shame & fire anyone who transgresses your identity politics dogma

And yet you still claim to be counter-cultural dissidents 'fighting the establishment' 'railing against the mainstream'

Hey feminists, tell me again how the hijab is a symbol of women's liberation?

This purity culture covers, segregates, subordinates, silences, jails and kills women and girls around the world. Recently, in Bareilly, India, a father killed his daughter, 4, smashing her head against the floor when her scarf slipped from her head during dinner. In Ontario, a few years ago, a man strangled his 16-year-old sister when she defied their father, including by refusing to cover her hair. In November, a former University of Missouri instructor dragged a female relative, 14, out of school "by the hair" when he discovered she hadn't covered her hair. Today, in Iran, friends of the journalist Masih Alinejad dodge batons as they shoot photos of themselves, hair bare, in a campaign Alinejad started, #MyStealthyFreedom, to protest Iran's mandatory headscarf law

Why the "lone wolf" explanation is BS

Aarti Tikoo Singh
1 hr

The new in-thing is that terrorism is "part and parcel" of living in big cities. So says the Mayor of London Sadiq Khan. The pseudo-liberal apologia for Islamist or Islamo-fascistic terror keeps getting better and better. At ridiculousness, I mean Sangrampora is a Kashmir village, so are Wandhama and Nadimarg known (in my part of the world) for massacres committed by Pakistan sponsored jihadi terrorists.

The other absurdity is the lone-wolf theory. That one was shredded to pieces by Jason Burke in one of his pieces last year, saying that there are no lone-wolves out there.

He wrote,"Terrorism is a social activity and so-called lone wolves are often a product of a much broader environment. All the militants today speak the same phrases, repeating the same tired, familiar tropes of jihadi thinking. If there is one key marker of a community it is a shared language, and the vocabulary of militancy – whether that of the al-Qaida dialect or that of the newer Islamic State – is more widespread than ever before. .This makes Islamic militancy much more intractable than some hope If the killers we have seen over recent years in Europe were indeed lone wolves, the problem of Islamic militancy would have been resolved long ago."

P S. It doesn't matter when Sadiq Khan made the statement. Timing is irrelevant; the theory of "terror merely as an urban phenomenon" has been in vogue for some time now. I am questioning the argumentation

Who needs a frigging manua ?

Jihadi terror manuals on how to use a car as a 'tool of war' for mass murder can be found in just two minutes on Google and Twitter

- Fanatics are urged to use cars before going on stabbing rampage in the guides
- Video revealed after Khalid Masood killed three in car then stabbed a policeman

Facebook caught censoring posts critical of feminism AGAIN

We Removed Something You Posted

We removed the post below because it doesn't follow the Facebook Community Standards:

"Feminism for everybody " ..... Except women who disagree
Or men who disagree
Or men in general
Or minorites who don't like having thier struggles trivialised
Or gay dudes (because apparently they're the worst)
Or trannys
Or people who believe in due process
Or people who think "rape culture" is absurd
Or 3rd world women who, in some case, fled here to escape an actual "rape culture" claims San Bernardino killers not being reported to police over fears of racism is fake news No it isn't.

Don't Be Afraid to Use Fake Stories to Back Up Your Point

That story about a neighbor lady who knew the shooters were plotting, could have stopped the shooting, and did not—was told by New Jersey Governor Chris Christie on Fox News It's not true There's no evidence for it besides extremely thin reports on right wing websites

Politifact rated it "False"

> The most that was reported is that a neighbor of a neighbor of one of the shooter s mother said there was suspicious activity There was no mention that a neighbor of the shooters themselves was suspicious, much less that a neighbor thought an attack was being planned.

Factcheck org concurred, finding a single local news report with a friend of a neighbor describing saying she didn't alert authorities to innocuous behavior "receiving quite a number of packages" and "working a lot in their garage" because she didn't want to "do any kind of racial profiling."

YouTube continues to pull videos and delete entire channels for the thought crime of criticising feminism.

> Alex's politically incorrect show". Out of 200 videos I had about 10 that you may consider "anti feminist" and they were never labeled with any of the edgy titles like "feminism is cancer" or anything, they were always low key. It was always me commentating and even appearing in the video via greenscreen. I was notified by youtube this morning that my channel has been suspended for "severe community guidelines violations" even though the channel had only gotten 1 community guideline strike ever and it had passed months ago. They are now targeting my other and more personal youtube channels which have never had a single copyright or community guideline strike and have 100% family friendly content. .they have taken down 2 of those as well now. Youtube has been my livelihood and needless to say I am severely depressed even near suicidal
> I find out that yesterday an article was posted that Holden and Kia were pulling ads from youtube after they learned their ads appeared on "anti feminist" videos.

Statement by Robert Kelner
Counsel to Lt. General Michael Flynn (Retired)

General Flynn certainly has a story to tell and he very much wants to tell it, should the circumstances permit.

Out of respect for the Committees, we will not comment right now on the details of discussions between counsel for General Flynn and the House and Senate Intelligence Committees, other than to confirm that those discussions have taken place. But it is important to acknowledge the circumstances in which those discussions are occurring.

General Flynn is a highly decorated 33-year veteran of the U.S. Army. He devoted most of his life to serving his country, spending many years away from his family fighting this nation's battles around the world. He was awarded four Bronze Stars for actions in Iraq, Afghanistan and elsewhere in the war on terror. He received the Legion of Merit twice and the Defense Superior Service Medal four times. He is a recipient of the Defense Department's Distinguished Service Award and the Intelligence Community Gold Seal Medallion for Distinguished Service, as well as numerous other decorations.

Notwithstanding his life of national service, the media are awash with unfounded allegations, outrageous claims of treason, and vicious innuendo directed against him. He is now the target of unsubstantiated public demands by Members of Congress and other politicians, critics that he be criminally investigated. No reasonable person, who has the benefit of advice from counsel, would submit to questioning in such a highly politicized, witch hunt environment without assurances against unfair prosecution.

But it is important to acknowledge the circumstances in which those discussions are occurring.

General Flynn is a highly decorated 33-year veteran of the U.S. Army. He devoted most of his life to serving his country, spending many years away from his family fighting this nation's battles around the world. He was awarded four Bronze Stars for actions in Iraq, Afghanistan and elsewhere in the war on terror. He received the Legion of Merit twice, and the Defense Superior Service Medal four times. He is a recipient of the Defense Department's Distinguished Service Award and the Intelligence Community's Gold Seal Medallion for Distinguished Service, as well as numerous other decorations.

Notwithstanding his years of national service, the media are awash with unfounded allegations, outrageous claims of treason, and vicious innuendo directed against him. He is now the target of unsubstantiated public demands by Members of Congress and other political critics that he be criminally investigated. No reasonable person, who has the benefit of advice from counsel, would submit to questioning in such a highly politicized, witch hunt environment without assurances against unfair prosecution.

Statement by Robert Kelner
Counsel to Lt. General Michael Flynn, (Retired)

General Flynn certainly has a story to tell and he very much wants to tell it, should the circumstances permit.

Out of respect for the Committees, we will not comment right now on the details of discussions between counsel for General Flynn and the House and Senate Intelligence Committees, other than to confirm that those discussions have taken place. But it is important to acknowledge the circumstances in which those discussions are occurring.

Statement by Robert Kelner
Counsel to Lt. General Michael Flynn, (Retired)

General Flynn certainly has a story to tell and he very much wants to tell it, should the circumstances permit.

Out of respect for the Committees, we will not comment right now on the details of discussions between counsel for General Flynn and the House and Senate Intelligence Committees, other than to confirm that those discussions have taken place. But it is important to acknowledge the circumstances in which those discussions are occurring.

General Flynn is a highly decorated 33-year veteran of the U.S. Army. He devoted most of his life to serving his country, spending many years away from his family fighting this nation's battles around the world. He was awarded four Bronze Stars for actions in Iraq, Afghanistan and elsewhere in the war on terror. He received the Legion of Merit twice and the Defense Superior Service Medal four times. He is a recipient of the Defense Department's Distinguished Service Award and the Intelligence Community Gold Seal Medallion for Distinguished Service, as well as numerous other decorations.

Notwithstanding his life of national service, the media are awash with unfounded allegations, outrageous claims of treason, and vicious innuendo directed against him. He is now the target of unsubstantiated public demands by Members of Congress and other politicians, critics that he be criminally investigated. No reasonable person, who has the benefit of advice from counsel, would submit to questioning in such a highly politicized, witch hunt environment without assurances against unfair prosecution.

For a conspiracy theorist, you're TERRIBLE at recognizing conspiracies.

The point is he asked for protection, not immunity. Immunity is admission of guilt. Protections given due to politically charged bias

Statement by Robert Kelner
Counsel to Lt. General Michael Flynn (Ret.ired)

General Flynn certainly has a story to tell and he very much wants to tell it, should the circumstances permit.

Out of respect for the Committees, we will not comment right now on the details of discussions between counsel for General Flynn and the House and Senate Intelligence Committees, other than to confirm that those discussions have taken place. But it is important to acknowledge the circumstances in which those discussions are occurring.

General Flynn is a highly decorated 33-year veteran of the U.S. Army. He devoted most of his life to serving his country, spending many years away from his family fighting this nation's battles around the world. He was awarded four Bronze Stars for actions in Iraq, Afghanistan and elsewhere in the war on terror. He received the Legion of Merit twice and the Defense Superior Service Medal four times. He is a recipient of the Defense Department's Distinguished Service Award and the Intelligence Community Gold Seal Medallion for Distinguished Service, as well as numerous other decorations.

Notwithstanding his life of national service, the media are awash with unfounded allegations, outrageous claims of treason, and vicious innuendo directed against him. He is now the target of unsubstantiated public demands by Members of Congress and other politicians, critics that he be criminally investigated. No reasonable person, who has the benefit of advice from counsel, would submit to questioning in such a highly politicized, witch hunt environment without assurances against unfair prosecution.

This is how partisan elements of the CIA can fake it to look like Russia 'hacked" the election.

UMBRAGE

The CIA s hand crafted hacking techniques pose a problem for the agency. Each technique it has created forms a "fingerprint" that can be used by forensic investigators to attribute multiple different attacks to the same entity.

This is analogous to finding the same distinctive knife wound on multiple separate murder victims. The unique wounding style creates suspicion that a single murderer is responsible. As soon one murder in the set is solved then the other murders also find likely attribution

The CIA s Remote Devices Branch's UMBRAGE group collects and maintains a substantial library of attack techniques stolen from malware produced in other states including the Russian Federation

With UMBRAGE and related projects the CIA cannot only increase its total number of attack types but also misdirect attribution by leaving behind the "fingerprints" of the groups that the attack techniques were stolen from.

UMBRAGE components cover keyloggers, password collection, webcam capture, data destruction, persistence, privilege escalation, stealth, anti-virus (PSP) avoidance and survey techniques

Powerful.

Sufian Ahmed

Dear White Liberal Apologists of Islam,

I understand your need to want to come to the rescue of the 'poor brown Muslim' because they are the 'marginalized minorities' in the bad evil West, but you are not helping anyone by saying that freedom of speech should stop where the hurt feelings of Muslims start

You had your Christian enlightenment, with the help of the minorities within your religion who wrote great critique of religion, who satarised its ideas, and challenged its authority. That minority who dared to challenge the dogmas were persecuted for it, and in some cases, killed for it, but in the end, Reason did prevail (to most ends)

It is now our time to do this with our (ex)religion 'Islam'. We the minorities within Islam who are all for freedom of expression and freedom of speech, which also includes the right to offend religious feelings, need to challenge our authority, our holy books, our sacred ideas and scriptures. It is our time to bring about enlightenment. It is our time to progress. Please don't get in our way

Kindest regards,
A minority person in Islam

The deep state & MSM ALWAYS lies and exploits dead children to push for war.

ABC s "Nightline and NBC s "Nightly News Seven US senators cited her te timony in speeches urging Americans to support the war, and George HW Bush repeated the story on 10 separate occasions in the weeks that followed.

In 2000, Tom Regan wrote about his own family s response to the story for The Christian Science Monitor.

> I can still recall my brother Sean s face. It was bright red. Furious. Not one given to fits of temper, Sean was in an uproar. Iraqi troops had looted Kuwaiti hospitals, but the gruesome image of babies dying on the floor was a fabrication.

In 1992, John MacArthur revealed in The New York Times that Nayirah was in fact the daughter of Saud Nasir al-Sabah, Kuwait s ambassador to the US. Her testimony had been organized by a group called Citizens for a Free Kuwait, which was a front for the Kuwaiti government.

Tom Regan reported that Citizens for a Free Kuwait hired Hill & Knowlton, a New York-based PR firm that had previously spun for the tobacco industry and a number of governments with ugly human rights records. The company was paid $10.7 million to devise a campaign to win American support for the war. "It was a Rachel Maddow is still rambling, presumably unaware that the details of Trump's tax return are already on the Internet.

Donald Trump earned more than $150 million in the year 2005—and paid just a small percentage of that in regular federal income taxes. Daily Beast contributor David Cay Johnston has obtained what appear to be the first two pages of Trump's 2005 federal income tax return, and published an analysis of those pages on his website, DCReport.org. The Daily Beast could not independently verify these documents.

The documents show Trump and his wife Melania paying $5.3 million in regular federal income tax—a rate of less than 4% However, the Trumps paid an additional $31 million in the so-called "alternative minimum tax," or AMT Trump has previously called for the elimination of this tax.

"Before being elected President, Mr Trump was one of the most successful businessmen in the world with a responsibility to his company, his family and his employees to pay no more tax than legally required," the White House said in a statement. "That being said, Mr Trump paid $38 million dollars even after taking into account large scale depreciation for construction, on an income of more than $150 million dollars, as well as paying tens of millions of dollars in other taxes such as sales and excise taxes and employment taxes and this illegally published return proves just that."

> He has said he is against President Trump and white people
> Thompson has tweeted his opposition to President Donald Trump several times. He has also ranted about white people on his Twitter account, calling them "trash." The ADL said Thompson last year announced plans to run for mayor of St. Louis, his hometown, to "fight back against Trumpian fascism." The civil rights group, which has been monitoring Thompson, said the suspect "became more hostile to whites in general" after he was axed from The Intercept. Thompson used to live in New York City where he and his roommate apparently hosted a TV show and discussed issues like bigotry, according to the ADL
